

WORKING WITH DELHI

URJA, The largest body of Resident Welfare Associations in Delhi, was set up in 2005. It gathers, analyses, disseminates information and aggregates public opinion to demand efficient delivery of civic amenities, health services, security, clean air and water to the residents of Delhi through an accountable, efficient and responsive Government.

URJA is the biggest civil society initiative in Delhi, with a footprint across the city and has impacted Government policy in diverse areas such as Power, Water, Transport and Security, Sports and CAG audits of private companies. URJA leverages public opinion, empowers RWAs and advocates their interest in the Government, the Legislature and litigates on their behalf in courts.

Join us to be a part of this powerful initiative.
